

John B. Stucky, CPA

Vice President, Audit

stucky@seldenfox.com

John Stucky handles audits, reviews and compilations for a variety of companies and organizations. He has experience working with organizations in the manufacturing, construction supply, wholesale and service industries. He also works with tax-exempt organizations and directs the audit of employee benefit plans. As a result of his extensive experience across industries, John brings clients a valuable perspective and can identify solutions and best practices that have worked effectively in a variety of sectors.

Within Selden Fox, John is committed to the development of the firm's young professionals. He provides both client service guidance and technical input as he seeks to further their professional growth and development.

John earned a Bachelor of Science in accounting from Illinois State University in 1983. He is the designated audit quality shareholder for Selden Fox with the AICPA Employee Benefit Plan Audit Quality Center. John is also a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Illinois CPA Society.

John lives in Lisle with his wife, Judy. He and his wife have two children, one of whom recently graduated from college and the other is still in college. When he is not in the office he enjoys bicycling and spending time with his family, which usually includes an annual trip to Disney World.

Related Services

- Accounting Solutions

Related Industries

- Closely Held Businesses
- Nonprofits
- Technology

