Selden Fox
Accounting for your future

Robert G. Wujek, CPA

Senior Vice President, Audit
wujek@seldenfox.com

Believing good service means doing more than what is expected, Bob Wujek always makes it his priority to listen attentively to his clients, identify their challenges and provide creative cost-saving solutions. His diverse client base greatly benefits from his experience advising on internal control systems, policies and procedures, and overall operational effectiveness.

Bob provides audit and tax services to both nonprofit entities and privately held businesses. His nonprofit clients include charitable organizations, private educational institutions, trade associations and common-interest real estate associations. His work with privately held businesses spans the manufacturing, communications and financial sectors. Bob also serves many of the firm's high-net-worth clients.

Bob joined Selden Fox in 1998 immediately after graduating magna cum laude from Augustana College (Rock Island, IL) where he earned Bachelor of Arts degrees in accounting and finance, and minored in public administration. Bob currently resides in Chicago and is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Illinois CPA Society. He has successfully completed the AICPA's Not-for-Profit Certificate II and Advanced Single Audit Certificate Programs. He also represents the firm within the Association Forum of Chicagoland and the American Society of Association Executives.

Related Services

- Accounting Solutions

Related Industries

- Closely Held Businesses
- Nonprofits
- Technology